

GERARDO JOFRÉ MIRANDA

Director/Representative of the Council of Senior Public Management. Commercial Engineer, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile. From 2005 until today, had been director of several companies and an independent investor. He is a director of ENDESA Chile, Construmart S.A., Chairman of Fundación Saber Más and is a member of the Investment Council of Santander Real Estate Funds. He was recently a director of D&S S. A., Viña San Pedro Tarapacá S. A., Inmobiliaria Parque del Sendero S. A. and Inmobiliaria Titanium S. A.

Between 1989 and 2004 he was a senior executive of Santander Group, where he had a number of senior management positions, such as Second Vice-president of Banco Santander Chile and Insurance Director for Latin America. He was also General Manager and President of Compañía de Seguros de Vida Santander, Director of Banco Santander Chile and AFP Bansander, General Manager of Santander Chile Holding, President of AFP Summa Bansander and President of Banco Mercantil of Peru.

During the 1980s, he was the General Manager of ISE Compañía de Seguros and before that adviser to the Minister of Finance, Hernán Büchi, responsible for various governmental and budget policy issues in different sectors. He was previously the Insurance Financial Control and Research Manager at the Superintendency of Securities and Exchange (SVS) and ODEPLAN Planning Manager.

He has held various academic positions such as lecturer of Introduction to Economics, Macroeconomics, Marketing, Market Research, Statistics, Costs at Universidad Adolfo Ibáñez, Universidad de Chile, Universidad de Santiago, Universidad Gabriela Mistral and Universidad de Concepción.